Since 1981, the Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore has provided more than 420 million meals to neighbors in need. They serve 11 cities and counties, where one in eight residents experience food insecurity. In these communities, they play a vital role in the fight against hunger by collecting, storing, and distributing nutritious food. Beyond food access, they focus on long-term solutions by addressing the root causes of hunger and promoting self-sufficiency.
